

I am opposed to any national standards regarding telemarketing that are any less stringent than the current Indiana standards.

I used to receive unwanted telemarketing calls 5-6 times a week, now I receive less than one a month.